The Fifty Year Catalogue

The Catalogue of Accessions to the Library for the first half of the century was published in March and has not only brought up to date and superseded its two predecessors of 1923 and 1933 for the Library's own readers but it has also been well received by many libraries for the information it affords. Miss D. M. Johnson, who edited the catalogue for the Trustees, is to be congratulated on her work.

The New Catalogue Room

In 1939 a beginning had been made with fitting out additional rooms and replanning certain departments of the Library. Only recently has it been possible to resume work on this expansion and part of it has now been carried out in a modified form. On May 5th the opening was celebrated of the new Catalogue Room where readers who need it may now consult the card catalogue of the entire library with much greater convenience. It is hoped that by the time this Bulletin reaches readers the new Ecclesiastical History Room also will have been brought into use. With the addition of these and adjoining rooms the pressure on library space will be very considerably relieved and more convenient working arrangements introduced. At the same time the Lending Department was decorated and re-arranged with the addition of a table where readers may sit and consult most of the current English religious weeklies.

Library Subscriptions

During the past year the financial position of the Library has been somewhat eased and as a result it will be possible to make more rapid progress with rebinding the many older books in the Library in serious need of repair. The Trustees have at the same time decided to make a small but, it is hoped, welcome relief in the subscription charges. In future the annual subscription to clergy and ministers will be reduced from a guinea to half a guinea.

Library Overdues

It has also been decided to make a small concession in applying the charges for overdue books. Hitherto the charge has begun as soon as a book became overdue. In future the charge will not normally begin until after a few days' grace by which time a reminder that a book is overdue will ordinarily have been sent. Readers are asked, however, not to wait for the reminder (which costs postage and time) but to return their books (or ask for a renewal) in good time.

Telephone

The Library has now been put on the telephone, and enquiries may be made, and renewals asked for, in this way, though readers will probably find that it is cheaper and more convenient to arrange for renewals by post.

Gifts to the Library

A notable accession to the Library's collection of Manuscripts is the gift of what are known as the Rix Papers presented by the Rev. Wilton E. Rix of Oxford. A large part of these papers have now arrived at the Library and consist in the main of Eighteenth and Nineteenth Century family records and letters relating to the families of Avery, Parker, Wilton and Rix. Amongst the Parkers represented is Joseph Parker who was Isaac Watts's amanuensis. Of the Wiltons, one, Dr. Samuel Wilton was a London minister at the time of the Appeal to Parliament in 1772, for relief from the legal obligation to subscribe most of the Anglican Articles; he was also later a member of the Three Denominations Committee charged with this affair and wrote in its support. In bulk the largest part of the papers come from the hand of Samuel Wilton Rix who in the middle of the last century built up the collection and in certain cases edited and arranged the older papers in volumes.

Another Manuscript gift, presented by the Wellcome Historical Medical Library, consists of a volume of sermons by James Bedford, an ejected minister, and of an original document listing the last slaves on the Windsor Castle estate, Jamaica, at the time when the slave trade was abolished.

Amongst gifts of books is a large collection of Eighteenth and Nineteenth Century hymn books presented by Hove Central Library which goes to swell the already considerable collection of hymn books in the Library.

The Library is also indebted, for gifts of books, to the Baptist Union, the Church of England Council on Foreign Relations, the College of the Bible, Lexington, Kentucky, the Congregational Union, Messrs. Darwen Finlayson, Ltd., Glasgow University, the Guildhall Library, the Irish Embassy, the Jacob Boehme Society, the Japanese Embassy, the Jewish Historical Society, Jews' College, the John Rylands Library, Lincoln's Inn Library, the London Baptist Preachers' Association, London University Library, the Pilgrim Trust, Presbyterian Church of England, the Royal Society, the School of Librarianship and Archives, the Third Church of Christ Scientist, London, the Unitarian College, Manchester, University College, London, Mr. Melvin Arnold, Dr. S. A. Birnbaum, Mr. W. H. Carpenter, Miss A. E. Carson, Mr. L. Chivers, Dr. I. Epstein, Mr. Maurice Gough, Miss M. K. Higgs, Miss L. E. Howlett, Mr. Serge Hutin, Mr. W. S. Jones, Rev. W. S. Kelynack, the late Rev. J. F. Marquis, Dr. Geoffrey F. Nuttall, Dr. E. A. Payne, Rev. G. H. Peters, Mr. Seymour J. Price, Mr. T. F. Reddaway, Rev. S. Rees-Tyrer, Dr. Marjorie E. Reeves, Mr. A. H. Baptist World Congress

The Baptist World Congress was held in London in July. At the invitation of the Trustees one of the meetings was held at the Library and members of the Congress from many countries were given the opportunity to look over the Library under the guidance of Mr. S. K. Jones, the former librarian.

The Trust includes a number of benefactions for which the founder, the Rev. Daniel Williams, D.D. (b. 1643, d. 1716), made provision in his will. The most important of these is now the Library, which has been greatly enlarged and developed since his time.

Besides the Library, the benefactions include grants of money to poor ministers, and to widows of ministers; grants of books to ministers; bursaries to undergraduate students for the Protestant Dissenting Ministry at the University of Glasgow; post-graduate divinity scholarships for students for the Protestant Dissenting Ministry in approved Theological Colleges.

The Trustees also give bursaries and scholarships to be held at the Presbyterian College, Carmarthen. They contribute to the maintenance of the Dr. Williams' School for Girls (Secondary) at Dolgelley, North Wales. For information as to the institutions named in this paragraph, applications should be made to them locally, and not to the Secretary of the Trust.

GRANTS TO DISSENTING MINISTERS.—Sums ranging usually from £10 to £20 not in aid of inadequate salaries, but to meet special emergencies or to help in education of children. Retired ministers are not eligible.

Part postage is also paid in suitable cases on books borrowed from the Library by country readers who are nonconformist ministers. Further particulars may be obtained on application.

GRANTS TO WIDOWS OF MINISTERS.—These are made for the same purposes as those to ministers.

GRANTS OF BOOKS (called in the founder's will "Bibles and good practical books to be given to the poor").—These grants are made only in June of each year. Applications may be made at any time up to the middle of April in each year; if any grant is made the books are sent out in the following July. The books given are intended to help ministers in their studies. They are new books, and are not given from the Library.

FRIENDS OF DR. WILLIAMS'S LIBRARY

Support for Dr. Williams's Library is urgently needed. Post-war costs have made it impossible to maintain an adequate library service without additional resources, and the facilities offered by the Library for research students have long stood in need of development. To meet these needs the FRIENDS OF DR. WILLIAMS'S LIBRARY was founded in 1946, and the society invites all who are interested to collaborate in its work.

Full particulars together with forms for the payment of subscriptions by Banker's Order and under Deed of Covenant may be had on application from the Secretary at the Library.
